"She made the leap..."

...to start her own business. My role as a CYBF mentor was to help an entrepreneur go from "good" to "great". And together, we did just that.

At first I thought I wouldn't add value or have enough time to commit. I soon found out I had a lot to offer and the time I spent with Christie was worth every minute.

Help a young entrepreneur achieve success. You won't regret a single minute."
