

Is a stronger Canada important to you?

Have you enjoyed a career of accomplishment? Looking for a new challenge? Want some energetic excitement? If so you are the perfect fit. Canada needs more entrepreneurs, in order to survive and prosper in the expanded and aggressive global marketplace. We need more producers. We have wonderful success stories, but we need many, many more!

So, I want you to consider becoming part of one of these success stories. You do it by getting together with The Canadian Youth Business Foundation. They select young, hard driving entrepreneurs, help them with their financing needs and planning and match them up with mentors. Individuals like yourself, who use their experience, their insights and their passion to guide and mentor young entrepreneurs along the path to success.

If you enjoy being on the edge, you know few experiences compare to building an enterprise! It's fun, it can be chaotic at times, it challenges your problem solving skills, and it's alive!

This is an intriguing opportunity worthy of your curiosity, explore it!
